

International Conference on Engaging Pedagogy Conference 2014

ANNOUNCEMENT

The steering and organizing committees of the International Conference on Engaging Pedagogy are now welcoming abstract submissions for ICEP 2014. This year ICEP will take place at the Athlone Institute of Technology on Friday, 5 December, 2014. The theme of this year's conference is The Voice of the Educator. Relevant sub-themes include but are not limited to:

- Academic Development & Self-care
- Learning in a digital age
- SMART assessment strategies
- Retention, engagement and learner transition
- Civic engagement
- Contemplative Pedagogies

The keynote address this year will be by a leading edge international promoter of Contemplative Pedagogy. Contemplative Pedagogy is a new and exciting pedagogy to Ireland which is informed by great success internationally, particularly in the US.

Abstracts should be 300 words or less, and be emailed to [info \[at\] icep \[dot\] ie](mailto:info@icep.ie) before August 22, 2014. All authors will be provided with feedback, and successful authors will be invited to submit full papers for the conference. Graduate students are encouraged to submit abstracts.

Important dates:

Abstracts due: August 15

Abstract feedback to authors: August 22

Papers due: October 3

Paper feedback to authors: October 31

Camera ready papers due: November 14

If you have any questions go to see www.icep.ie, or send an email with the subject "ICEP 2014 CFA Question" to info@icep.ie